Numb. 9020.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 1, to Saturday January 5, 1750.

Conſtantinople, November 23.

WE have had of late ſeveral Rumours as if a Revolution had happened at Cairo, and that Ibrahim Chiauſe, and Rudwan Cheaia, had been deſtroyed. Theſe Rumours were occaſioned by the firſt Imrchor, or Maſter of the Horſe to the Grand Seignor, being ſent thither. What is moſt probable, and we are told here, is, that thoſe two potent Men will not admit the new Paſcha Abdullah to act; though others ſay, they have not thought proper this Year to remit the Grand Seignor the Whole of his Tribute. A Commotion has happened at Aleppo againſt the Paſcha, who was charged by the Inhabitants of neglecting their Security, and ſuffering the Gourdines, a lawleſs powerful People of the Mountains, to intercept the Subſiſtance ſent to the Town, ſo that all Neceſſaries were become ſcarce and dear; and it is thought, without he can buy it off, he will be changed. On the 8th Inſtant M. Nepleuf, the Ruſſian Reſident, departed this Life, after a conſuming Illneſs of near twelve Months.

Gibraltar, Dec. 6. The new Alcaide of Tetuan having received the Emperor of Morocco's Credential Letters for carrying into Execution the Agreement made between William Pettigrew, Eſq; his Majeſty's Conſul General, and the late Alcaide of Tetuan, for the Redemption of all his Britannick Majeſty's Subjects who are there in Captivity, Capt. Barrington, in the Sea Horſe Man of War, will ſail To-morrow Morning for Tetuan Bay, in order to take on board the ſaid Captives.

Gibraltar, Dec. 9. Capt. Barrington, in the Sea Horſe Man of War, who ſailed from hence on the 7th Inſtant in the Morning for Tetuan Bay, in order to bring over the Britiſh Slaves, is returned hither this Morning, and has brought with him Mr. Latton and 27 Captives. And Mr. Pettigrew is preparing to ſet out for Fez, with a handſome Retinue, to have an Interview with the Emperor of Morocco, in order to procure the Renewal of all former Treaties, and to receive the Britiſh Captives who are ſtill at Fez.

Petersbourg, Dec. 18. The Council of War having regulated the Winter Quarters for all the Troops which were cantonned in Finland, Livonia, and the other conquered Provinces, Orders have been given for filling the neceſſary Magazines for their Subſiſtance. This Body of Troops are reckoned to amount to about 100,000 Men; and, according to the Plan laid down for their Winter Quarters, may be drawn together again in a ſhort Time.

Liſbon, Dec. 24. The Engineers who were to have embarked in the Rio Fleet which ſailed on the 7th Inſtant, received the Night before an Order from Court to poſtpone their Departure till a Man of War could be got ready to convey their Perſons and all the neceſſary Implements that are wanting for erecting the Stone Pillars in the Limits agreed on between this Crown and that of Spain.

Florence, Dec. 25. The Arch-Prieſt of Udine is arrived at Rome, with a Commiſſion from the Senate of Venice, to aſſiſt Cardinal Rezzonico in treating with the Pope about the Affair of Aquileja.

Turin, Dec. 26. Count Bellegarde, the Poliſh Miniſter at this Court, who married the late Marſhal Saxe's Siſter, and who was appointed his Reſiduary Legatee, has received from Paris an Account of the Eſtate and Effects which falls to him by the ſaid Marſhal's Death, amounting in the whole to about 900,000 Livres; and on Wedneſday laſt he ſet out for Dreſden, from whence 'tis ſaid he will go to Paris, in order to take Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Marſhal's Eſtate and Effects.

Vienna, Dec. 30. Their Imperial Majeſties have not as yet appeared in Publick ſince the Death of the Empreſs Dowager, but their Miniſters have been permitted to confer with them. The Mourning for that Princeſs is fixed to ſix Months, and three Months half Mourning; and all her Officers and Domeſticks are allowed to enjoy the ſame Honours and Appointments they had during her Life. The Count de Graſſalkowitz, Preſident of the Chamber of Hungary, is arrived here from Presbourg, to confer with the Miniſters of this Court, in relation to the Steps neceſſary to be taken in order to the Opening the General Diet of that Kingdom. The Chevalier de Azlor, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Spain, is alſo arrived here.

Venice, Jan. 1. The Term fixed for the Departure of the Imperial Miniſters being near expiring, has occaſioned for ſome Days paſt a great Appearance of Buſineſs here. The Savii have had frequent Conſultations upon the Arrival of Couriers from Vienna and Rome, and particularly upon ſome Diſpatches from Cardinal Rezzonico; and on the 27th paſt, there was a Meeting

[Price Two-pence.]

Meeting of all the Savii Grandi, as well thoſe who are actually in Office, as thoſe who have finiſhed their Term, which laſted many Hours; and on the 29th they aſſembled the Senate, to lay before it theſe Diſpatches, with the Reſolutions the Savii Grandi had come to upon them. Yeſterday the Senate aſſembled again, when the Pregadi was very numerous, the Debates ran high, and laſted till Midnight, but their Reſolutions are kept very ſecret, to which Purpoſe all the Members have been obliged to take a new Oath. On Tueſday laſt M. Chavigni ſent a Memorial to the College, ſetting forth, That his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty cannot ſee with Indifference the Diſpute which ſtill ſubſiſts about the Affair of Aquileja; and from his equal Regard to all the Parties concerned, and a Deſire to prevent the ill Conſequences which may attend it, wiſhes it may be ſoon and amicably adjuſted; and therefore recommends to the Senate, the Project for the Erection of the two Biſhopricks, as the moſt proper and equitable Expedient for that Purpoſe.

Bruſſels, Jan. 11. On Monday laſt the Court went into Mourning for Six Months for the Death of the Empreſs Dowager, during which Time all publick Diverſions are ſuſpended. The Deputies of the City of Antwerp, who came hither the Beginning of laſt Week to confer with our Prime Miniſter the Marqueſs de Botta Adorno, about the Canal which is going to be made in Flanders, to communicate with the Scheld, are returned Home, extremely pleaſed with the Methods agreed to by that Miniſter for carrying the ſame into Execution.

Hague, Jan. 12. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland are to aſſemble on Wedneſday the 20th Inſtant, and the neceſſary Summonſes for that Purpoſe are already ſent out to the ſeveral Members of that Aſſembly.
